This helpful reference covers the broad range of content found on the actual examinations, including disorders by body system, such as coronary artery disease, COPD, and diabetes. The product reviews signs and symptoms, diagnostic tests, medical treatments, nursing assessments, and interventions for scores of health problems. Concise refreshers on wound care, perioperative nursing, collaborative practice, nursing research, and legal issues are also included. Review questions after each chapter and an end-of-book posttest help assess the nurse's preparedness for the exam. The book is appropriate for exams of both major certifying bodies: the ANCC and the AMSN.

Een hoog IQ biedt geen garantie op een gelukkig leven; minstens even belangrijk is het EQ, het 'emotiequotiënt'. In 'Emotionele intelligentie' laat Daniel Goleman ons kennismaken met het voelende deel van ons brein, dat zorgt voor zelfbeheersing, zelfkennis, geestdrift en het vermogen eigen emoties te herkennen en onszelf te motiveren. Emotionele vaardigheden blijken niet alleen belangrijker te zijn dan rationele, ze zijn ook van doorslaggevend belang voor succes in relaties en werk en voor ons lichamelijk welbevinden. 'Emotionele intelligentie' werd in veertig talen vertaald; wereldwijd zijn er vijf miljoen exemplaren van verkocht.

This thoroughly updated review provides the information needed for certification in medical-surgical nursing from the credentialing arms of the American Academy of Medical-Surgical Nurses and the American Nurses Association. It covers all topics on the exam and includes review questions, posttests, and answers with rationales. This edition reflects current NANDA Taxonomy II nursing diagnoses, arranged by nursing domain, and recent CDC infection prevention and control guidelines. The cardiovascular chapter reflects the latest information on acute coronary syndrome differential care and American Heart Association guidelines for emergency cardiovascular care. The appendix on oncology care issues and nursing implications has been expanded.
