Topics provide students with the skills they need to communicate when shopping, talking about home, family, and friends, participating in activities, and traveling. This book is a provisional essay, followed by a vocabulary and an index, on the Tagalogs' world view in the Sixteenth Century. It is mainly based on the entries of the earliest dictionaries of the Tagalog language. These were written by Spanish lexicographers about half-a-century after the conquest of the Philippines (Cebu 1565, Manila 1571). Additional data are drawn from Spanish chronicles. Many of the recorded beliefs and customs were already obsolete at the turn of the Seventeenth Century. Some are extremely surprising, starting from the primeval myth according to which the world had no solid land at its beginning, but only two fluids, water and air.

This full-color Student Guided Practice Book (Spanish Version) has been created specifically to support a first grade reading level and includes reading passages, comprehension activities, writing activities, and daily comprehension review.
