Together with his colleagues at Citroën, Andre Lefebvre created the Traction Avant (1934), the TUB (1939) – Citroën's first front wheel drive utility van that was succeeded by the H and HY vans (1947) – the Deux Chevaux (1948), and, last but not least, the DS (1955). From 1923 to 1931 Lefebvre also designed several highly original and outstanding competition cars and record-breaking automobiles for Voisin. He even drove some these cars in races and record attempts. It is obvious that during his 16 years with Gabriel Voisin he was very much influenced by the ideas of this illustrious aviation pioneer and car manufacturer. The experience gained during that period gave him the self-confidence to persuade his successive bosses at Citroën that his unorthodox approach to automobile design was what the company needed; first he convinced André Citroën, later Pierre Michelin, then Pierre-Jules Boulanger, and finally Robert Puiseux and Pierre Bercot. His oeuvre for Citroën alone earns him a place of honour among the great automobile designers of the past century. The fact that most present-day cars still carry the DNA of his design philosophy makes him stand out above other automotive pioneers and innovators. That is why it is amazing that so little is known about this fascinating and brilliant engineer. This book was written in order to remedy that, and to pay tribute to André Lefebvre: the passionate pioneer who left car enthusiasts around the world such an important heritage.

Een van de sleutelgaten van de villa biedt een spectaculair uitzicht op de koepel van de St. Pieter. De zevenjarige Alessio Bramante kijkt elke dag op weg naar school even door het sleutelgat. Hoofdverdachte is de vader van de jongen, Giorgio Bramante, een charismatische hoogleraar archeologie. En zes van zijn studenten hebben Alessio tijdens een drinkgelag betrokken bij een bizar ritueel ter ere van de god Mithras. Uiteindelijk pakt de politie Giorgio Bramante op voor de moord op zijn zoon. Veertien jaar later duikt in een relikwieënkastje in een klein museum langs de Tiber op onverklaarbare wijze een T-shirt op van Alessio waarop verse bloedvlekken verschijnen. Na een jarenlange gevangenisstraf is Bramante inmiddels vrijgekomen, en een voor een sterven alle betrokkenen bij de verdwijning van zijn zoon. Inspecteur Costa en zijn team raken verstrikt in het duistere web rondom de mysterieuze verdwijning van Alessio en de riten rond de zeven sacramenten van Mithras.
