Nurses have little time... so little, in fact, that they often have no time to spend on self-care. In Back to the Basics: A Nurse's Pocket Guide to Self-Care, Elizabeth Scala, MSN/MBA, RN, shares with us quick tips and easy-to-use tools for the busy nurse! Elizabeth brings us back to the basics of nursing; reminding us why taking care of ourselves, as the people taking care of patients, is so imperative to do. Often, nurses find themselves stressed, burnt out, and ill. Why? Because they do not spend the time, or just do not have any time of their own, on their own health and well-being. The nurse is often so busy caring, giving, and nurturing another person that their own health and well-being goes out the window. Elizabeth invites the busy nurse to slow down, listen to themselves, and figure out what is important, what is desired, and what gives life meaning. Through her 12 Steps to Self-Care, and this quick, easy-to-read guide book, Elizabeth shares valuable nuggets of information, wisdom, and advice from her own healing, learning, and growth experience. Het is 1950 als de 22-jarige Jennifer Worth als vroedvrouw komt werken bij de nonnen van Nonnatus House, een kloosterorde die al sinds 1870 actief is in de Londense docklands. Het is een plek waar behalve de politie en de bewoners niemand durft te komen: bordelen, straatbendes en alcoholisten tussen de gebombardeerde huizen. Kinderen worden geboren onder erbarmelijke omstandigheden in huizen zonder elektriciteit en veelal zonder stromend water. Geen gemakkelijke omgeving om in te werken, maar naast deze hardheid en onvermijdelijke drama s ervaart Jennifer Worth onverwachte vriendelijkheid en begrip, altijd vergezeld van een grote dosis Cockney-humor. Jennifer Worth vertelt niet alleen met liefde over de vrouwen voor wie ze dag en nacht klaarstaat, maar ook over de nonnengemeenschap waarin ze woont: wijs en vroom, maar ook werelds en grappig, soms gekmakend en vaak excentriek. Haal de vroedvrouw! geeft een indringend, levendig en ontroerend beeld van een kleurrijke achterbuurt uit vervlogen tijden, en is een ode aan mensen die gevormd zijn door de harde omgeving waarin ze leefden

Haar naam was Henrietta Lacks, maar de medische wereld kent haar als HeLa. In de jaren '50 werden haar kankercellen zonder dat zij dat wist bij haar weggenomen. Met behulp van deze cellen, die letterlijk onsterfelijk zijn, werden de meest uiteenlopende geneeskundige ontdekkingen gedaan en rond de verkoop ervan ontstond een miljoenenindustrie. Het leven van Henrietta bleef echter vrijwel onbekend en ook haar familie wist tot ruim dertig jaar geleden niet van het bestaan van de cellen af. Rebecca Skloot vertelt het verhaal van de 'HeLa-cellen', maar laat ons vooral ook kennis maken met Henrietta, haar verleden en haar familie, die nog steeds worstelt met de nalatenschap van de cellen. Ze laat zien dat het verhaal van de familie Lacks onlosmakelijk verbonden is met de duistere geschiedenis van het experimenteren met Afrikaans-Amerikanen, het ontstaan van de ethiek binnen de biologie en de juridische strijd over de vraag of we de baas zijn over de materie waarvan we zijn gemaakt.
